

OFFICE of the
INSURANCE
COMMISSIONER
WASHINGTON STATE

Washington drops pre-licensing education for producers

Washington state adopted House Bill 1061 during the 2023 legislative session. This bill eliminates the requirement for Washington residents to complete pre-licensing education before taking an insurance exam.

This bill goes into effect on Sunday, July 23, 2023.

- Read the details on HB 1061

If you are preparing to take an insurance exam on or before Saturday, July 22, 2023, the pre-licensing requirement will still be in place. You must provide proof to the insurance exam vendor that you have completed pre-licensing education before taking any insurance exam.

- Please visit our website for more details.

Please direct any questions to licinfo@oic.wa.gov or call 360-725-7144.
