Surplus Line
ASSOCIATION OF WASHINGTON

HOW WE FULFILL OUR MISSION

Supporting a Strong Non-Admitted Insurance Market

We're committed to promoting a stable and viable Non-Admitted (Surplus Lines) insurance market in Washington State, offering reliable options to insurance buyers statewide.

Compliance & Oversight

We work to ensure our members comply with state and federal laws, as well as regulations from the Washington Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC). We also assist with policy filing and support proper documentation and review practices.

Education & Resources

Our association provides valuable educational resources. This includes seminars, training, and regulatory updates to keep members informed and compliant in the ever evolving surplus lines environment.

Advocacy & Communication

We actively engage with the Legislature and the OIC to represent our members' interests and support the health of the Non-Admitted market.

Collaboration with OIC

We partner with the OIC on key matters, including Annual Tax Statement Reporting, to promote transparency and efficiency.

WHAT WE DO FOR OUR MEMBERS

The Surplus Line Association of Washington is dedicated to supporting its members by fostering a robust and dynamic Non-Admitted insurance market. Through a strong focus on compliance, education, and advocacy, we ensure that our members have the resources and support needed to navigate the complexities of the surplus line insurance landscape.

By collaborating closely with regulators and offering valuable training and tools, we help our members stay informed and compliant, bolstering their ability to serve clients and contribute to the stability of the market.
